INVEST IN ARCHITECTURAL PHOTOGRAPHY

01 HELPS CREATE A GOOD PORTFOLIO

Architectural Photography helps architects showcase their work in all its glory. The first impression matters and if you have your work photographed well, it also becomes an asset for your portfolio and website, instantly drawing attention by conveying the feel of spaces.

02 GETS YOUR WORK FEATURED

Getting work featured on famous online platform or in a magazine is like a reward for architects and designer. And the first step to get your work published is great pictures. For both digital and print media, it becomes a lot easier if you have high quality images of your projects.

03 CRAFTING SOCIAL MEDIA PRESENCE

We've entered an age where we rely on the internet and social media for almost everything! Hence, having a strong social media presence as a designer has become a necessity. You can use the photographs to curate a beautiful Instagram feed and instantly draw attention.

04 FOR PARTICIPATION IN AWARDS

Many times, architectural awards and competitions require of you to submit photographs of your design and projects. And in such cases, you only want to submit the best shots and photographs of the project on which you spent numerous hours designing.

Mario Wibowo

M W Captain

Majoring in Architecture, Mario spent 7 years in the industry, including in a well-known architecture firm in Singapore. His passion in photography and architecture, has brought him to the professional world of architectural photography. He has been awarded the title 'Associate of The Royal Photographic Society' (ARPS) from United Kingdom.

Mario developed the brand MWP at 2012 and rebrand to M W at 2021 to include more photographers. From behind the lens, Mario helps clients to document their works, build social network and retell their stories from different platform. His works varies from wide shot angles that capture the whole mood of the built works, to tight shot angles that focus to details and structures.

Mario was appointed as Leica Indonesia Ambassador from year 2018- 2020. architecture books and magazines in Indonesia since then.

Andhy Prayitno

M W Associate Photographer

Majoring in Architecture but has a great passion in photography, Andhy has started his photography career since 2005. His experience in one of the best photography company in Bali, has gained him the ability to capture perfect moments with various lighting, something that human eyes often miss.

Proficient in tight angle shot, he loves to get the essence of design to catch the magic of how building interacts with lighting, human with space, and how the images he created can bring people back in time and make the artwork everlasting.

Daniel Jiang

M W Associate Photographer

Daniel Jiang has always been interested in learning about architecture photography since he was studying Architecture in college. He has a keen eye for detail and loves finding unique and eye-catching angle, composing intricate textures, shapes, colors and lighting to create deep and interesting twists in his works.

Daniel has been working as a writer and journalist in one of Indonesia's leading architecture media for four years before he started his career as a full-time architecture photographer.

Working in media has given him an experience to learn about how to picture is produced, prepared and published in mass media. Daniel has also got numerous opportunities to join big projects to develop his photography skill. His works have been published in several architecture books and magazines in Indonesia since then.

Nike Oktari

M W Interior Stylist

Graduating with a bachelor's degree in Interior Design, Nike decided to pursue her lifetime passion in Hospitality. She went to one of the most prestigious Hospitality Schools in Switzerland and built her career by working in one of the biggest hotel brands in Indonesia. Taking an important decision in her life, Nike tied the knot with Mario - becoming his life and business partner by also joining M W as an Interior Stylist.

Nike brings many years of experience in Hospitality to M W as a service-oriented business, taking charge of managing vendors and teams to provide professional solutions for clients. Her background in Interior Design ultimately becomes her guideline in working as an Interior Stylist, which also opens the door of opportunities to work on various interior styling projects.

Nike describes her style as elegant and modern with an approach in American style that's hugely inspired by Architectural Digest.
